Pronoun Case – Exercise 3: He, Him, His, and Himself

Directions: Fill in the blanks with the appropriate choices—he, him, his, or himself. Check your answers with the interactive version of the exercise.

Don't bother offering to help Dwayne with that heavy branch. He insists on dragging it to the road
A. himself
B. hisself
C. his self
Marcus can't wait two hours for a sugar fix, so we assume that the candy wrapper on the classroom floor is
A. his
B. his'
C. his's
Brianna shot Nate a dirty look across the restaurant table. She found slurping the squid eyeball stew rude and embarrassing.
A. him
B. his

4.	Emilio loves American football. At the dinner table,	argue whether football or soccer requires more skill.
	A. he and his father
	B. his father and him
	C. his father and himself
5.	Jacob is a computer geek too! Ask either Stephanie or	to help us bypass this security software.
	A. he
	B. him
	C. himself
6.	The driver in front slammed on his brakes for no reason	and sat in the middle of the road. Jasmine waved an angry fist at his passenger and _	as she drove around.
	A. he
	B. him
	C. himself
7.	Sergei is so tall that you don't want to sit behind Lori an	d at the movies.
	You'll be craning to see the screen the entire film!
	A. he
	B. him
	C. himself
8.	Ruth's brother has muscles bursting out of his shirt slee	ves. Ask and his friend if they will help us load this sofa onto the truck.
	A. he
	B. him
	C. himself

9.	If you buy a mocha latte at the café, order it from Mark. It is who will spray an avalanche of whipped cream onto the finished drink.
	A. he
	B. him
	C. himself
10.	Tyrone is a terrible housekeeper, so that heap of sweaty gym clothes is probably .
	A. his
	B. his'
	C. his's
11.	As Madison waited for the veterinarian, she hugged Jack, her new puppy
	squirming covered her white sweater in black hair.
	A. him
	B. his
12.	David is always well prepared for a quiz. Either or Melissa, another excellent student, will have a #2 pencil that you can borrow.
	A. he
	B. him
	C. himself
13.	With both feet planted on the floor, Wesley could still reach the lightbulb in the kitchen ceiling. I wish I were as tall as!
	A. he
	B. him

14.	We offered to help Gregory frost the six dozen cupcakes. Even though he was behind schedule, he insisted on finishing the work
	A. himself
	B. hisself
	C. his self
15.	Cameron has a problem with punctuality. Neither nor his roommate Jeb remember to get the rent check to the landlord on the first of the month.
	A. he
	B. him
	C. himself
16.	Kelvin has so much hair that he must buy a new bottle of shampoo every week. I wouldn't want to have as much hair as
	A. he
	B. him
17.	Jessica hated her upstairs neighbor stomping in the apartment above at 3
	a.m. made uninterrupted sleep impossible.
	A. him
	B. his
18.	That man over there was lurking near the coat rack. It might have been who stole the bag of pretzels from your jacket pocket!
	A. he
	B. him
	C. himself

19.	If you want to find the missing issue to your Swamp Thing collection, ask Frank for help are masters of online auctions and will get you the best price.
	A. He and his brother
	B. His brother and him
	C. His brother and himself
20.	See that young man with the ponytail? Give this glass of lemonade to He volunteered to help us carry heavy boxes up three flights of stairs to our new apartment.
	A. he
	B. him
	C. himself

