

Pronoun Reference

Directions: Choose the option that corrects an error in the underlined portion(s). If no error exists, choose "No change is necessary."

- We decided to swim in the hotel pool since it says at the lifeguard stand that sharks are feeding near shore.
A. it states at the lifeguard stand
B. they say at the lifeguard stand
C. the lifeguard says
D. No change is necessary.
- The doctor told Veronica that she had headaches because of the high stress level at the office. An aspirin would help the headaches a little, but a vacation would relieve the stress best.
A B C
A. Doctor Lee
B. Veronica
C. it
D. No change is necessary.
- Freddie is unhappy with the unhealthy cafeteria choices. They are serving more fried foods and fewer fruits and vegetables.
A. The chefs are serving
B. It is
C. They prepare
D. No change is necessary.
- They say that the old house on Mayfair is haunted, but Caroline doesn't believe the stories. She is a physics major who has no use for ghosts.
A B C
A. Neighbors
B. them
C. them
D. No change is necessary.
- Leonardo called us over and pointed at the computer screen. It claimed at the website that our favorite restaurant serves squirrel!
A. At the website, it claimed
B. The website claimed
C. The website, it claimed
D. No change is necessary.

